

ILP Eligibility

To be eligible for the ILP contracts covered by the MOU, prospective tenants must:

1. Be 18 years of age
2. Have a severe mental illness that:
 - a. affects their opportunity to maintain stable accommodation
 - b. is exacerbated by housing instability
3. Require the services of a supportive landlord;
4. Be able to live in the community with support;
5. Be currently receiving clinical support provided by either a GP, private psychiatrist or the public mental health system as required;
6. Meet the Housing Authority eligibility criteria for public housing. This includes:
 - a. Be an Australian citizen or permanent resident
 - b. Live in Western Australia and receive an income here
 - c. Be income eligible for social housing
 - d. Not own property or land